C. New Business

1. FY23 Budget – Administration Cost Center

Mrs. Bottan discussed the FY23 recommended budget overview and the timeline for budget discussions.

Dr. Milaschewski discussed the three main district priorities that the FY23 budget will address.

1. Improve academic outcomes and growth for all students within safe, equitable, and rigorous learning environments.

Support students social and emotional needs through multi-tiered instruction and services.
 Enhance adult practices and streamline operational systems to increase efficiencies and effectiveness in support students.

Mrs. Bottan discussed a high-level overview of the administration cost center which includes salaries and expenses for central office and district administration. Personnel will have an increase of $14,298 to support COLA and contractual agreements and to sustain a 1.0 FTE HR assistant which was added in FY22. Non-personnel will increase by $10,495 in order to increase labor counsel, telecommunications, dues, equipment, hiring and recruitment.

2. FY23 Budget - Districtwide Cost Center

Mrs. Bottan explained there would be a 2.1% increase, for a total of $2,167,444 to support salaries and expenses for four district wide services: athletics, extra-curricular, health services and technology. She discusses athletics which includes 8 sports, and 1124 participants. The budget increase will support personnel cost increase by COLA and transportation which has increased by $26,000 due to new three-year contract issued in FY22. Extra-curricular is made up of 11 activities and 228 participants.

This increase will also support health services and Technology personnel cost increase by COLA, and the addition of a 1.0 FTE Nurse added to increase direct services to students and allow for release time for increase oversight by Director.

3. FY23 Budget - School Facilities Cost Center

Mrs. Bottan stated there would be an increase of $42,641 to School Facilities to support the salaries and expenses to clean and maintain the eight school buildings.

Director of Facilities Joe Huggins answered questions from the committee.

Geoffrey Coram, Ridge Rd.

Asked if there was still a need for outside contractors for cleaning at RMHS and Coolidge, if there are less events being held during the pandemic.

4. FY23 Budget - Capital Plan Review

Mrs. Bottan reviewed the capital project to be completed in 2022, which include remain security enhancements, the Parker Middle School roof and Turf 1 project.

Other capital project that are being reviewed are the Killam Elementary School, Parker Turf field and the RMHS fieldhouse/ bleachers.

Adjournment

Mr. Brandt moved, seconded by Mr. Robinson to adjourn. The vote carried 6-0. Mr. Brandt, Mrs. Gaffen, Ms. McLaughlin, Mrs. Nazzaro, Mr. Robinson, and Mr. Wise.
